Using the case study template below, please tell us about your Young People. We are particularly interested in the impact of Living For Sport and the evidence that demonstrates the difference it has made to the young people, relevant to the category you wish them to be considered for. (Please continue on a separate sheet if necessary).

School Context: tell us about your school, its character and its particular challenges

Target group: we know the age, gender and number of young people you have involved from your baseline M&E forms, but tell us about the characteristics of the group, their challenges and the circumstances

What was the starting point for the young person that you have nominated?

What was the rationale for this young person being put forward for this Living For Sport award?

What elements of Living For Sport worked well for this young person?

What has been the impact for this young person? What difference has been seen, by them, by you as lead teacher, by other staff, pupils, parents etc. Please support this with quantitative data where possible.

Continued overleaf...

What has the impact been for this young person across the rest of the school? Feedback and comments from other staff and pupils.

Why has Living For Sport helped to support this young person?

What is next for this young person? What goals have they set, what exits routes are lined up and how is the school going to support them further?

Young Person(s) quote (to highlight the impact that Living For Sport has had)

Endorsement from Senior Management: Please explain how Living For Sport has helped your school to meet whole school objectives around the behaviour, attendance and personal development of your young people

Headteacher quote: (include the name of the school)

Headteacher name:

As Lead teacher for Living For Sport I can confirm that all the information contained within this application is a true representation of the work we have done through Living For Sport. I understand that if successful in achieving an award we will work with the Youth Sport Trust in developing a case study that can be used to support other schools nationally.
